

School board members took an additional step closer to seeking bids on one or some of the renovation projects that have been discussed in the past several months. One company, AHRS Construction, Inc., submitted a bid for the Construction Manager At Risk (CMAR) for the projects under consideration. Employees, Eric Stallbaumer and Jay Hermann were present to explain the Construction Manager At Risk process, the fee structure and responsibilities of the company. Supt. Kohlman stated that after a CMAR is hired the next step will be to decide which projects the board desires to pursue and whether the projects be bid individually or as a package. After reviewing the fee schedule, the board unanimously approved retaining AHRS as the CMAR.

The board voted to table a proposal from the City to relocate the electrical services for the elementary/middle school from 11th Street to Community Drive. If the link addition between the two buildings is approved, the electrical will need to be moved since the service is now between the two buildings.

Recognition levels for donations for the FFA/Vo-Ag department were approved. A donation of $20,000 or more will be the Platinum Level; $10,000-$19,999 will be the Gold Level; Silver Level will be $5,000-$9,999; Bronze Level will be $1,000-$4,999 and Patron level will be $500-$999.

Madeline Rogers, NCHS student, presented a short video addressing the activities of the newly formed Student Leadership Team. She also shared several different activities that the students experienced through community speakers, job shadowing, advisory groups, and career exploration.

Replacement laptop bags for the Mac computers which are used at the high school were approved for purchase from CDW for a total of $7,875. The previous bags have been in use for four years.

New hires approved were: Max Holthaus - Summer IT; Warren Seitz - Summer Maintenance; Chelsey Haverkamp - Summer Maintenance; Angie Bass - Concessions Manager; Marya Haverkamp – FFA/Vo-Ag Teacher; and Odette Helm – regular education paraprofessional at NCEMS. Resignations from Sandy Stallbaumer, NCEMS regular education paraprofessional and Nikki Heiman, Special Education teacher were accepted.

The board voted to hold a special meeting Tuesday, June 26 at 6:00 p.m. for fiscal year-end business.
